Leaders

The monthly pattern for this leading article in News and Notes is generally a Team Vicar, someone else, the other Team Vicar, someone else, and so on. It very often happens that the someone else is me, because, being the Editor, I don't want to leave a blank space above the service details on the front page.

Of course, the someone else could be you! If you'd like to submit somewhere around three hundred words on a subject dear to your heart, politics aside, you're welcome to join the queue of other contributors, and leave it to me to decide which article I use first. I'll go and check the News and Notes email Inbox now to see what's there, and just hope anything that has arrived is apolitical and printable!

Needless to say, the articles from the Team Vicars are of a religious nature, and sometimes mine are a bit, too. Yours can be religious or secular. I'd love to hear from you, and have the problem of whom I will offend by not using theirs first.

Incidentally, I do hope any commitment you may have made for Lent is going well, particularly if it's abstinence from something bad for your waistline or your liver. However hard your chosen path proves to be, it won't be as hard as forty days without food. The odd day with just five or six hundred calories is bad enough, as some will know! When Jesus fasted, he was preparing himself for a great, but humble, leadership role. It was quite effective preparation; he certainly left his mark on the world!

Elizabeth Cutter, President, welcomed forty seven members to the Annual General Meeting at the Radnor Hall, held on 10th March. She thanked Priscilla Mackay for her beautiful spring flower arrangement. Reports on the monthly interest groups – Theatre, Scrabble, Skittles, Reading, Walking, Gardeners and Craft – followed, each group continuing to have enthusiastic supporters. Details of forthcoming national, local and county outings, talks and entertainments were read out, as was the financial statement. The summer outing will be on Wednesday 16th July to the Bristol Blue Glass factory and Tyntesfield House, National Trust. Members were invited to bid for 17 Auction Promises.

AGM business entailed the Treasurer's Report ably delivered by Treasurer Linda Cox, the Committee Report written by Secretary Heather Marrison and read out on her behalf by Gill Dodd, including special thanks to Elizabeth Cutter for her enthusiastic leadership during the year. Elizabeth's President's Address also reflected on an excellent year with many enjoyable activities and fundraising incentives. Elizabeth thanked her Committee, mentioning the main tasks they undertake. All three reports were adopted. The meeting then agreed the Committee members for the coming year and proceeded to vote for the President; Lesley Meader and Doreen Smith acted as scrutineers. Unsurprisingly Elizabeth was re-elected in a landslide victory, although she gave warning that she intends to stand down next March! Gill Dodd and Clare Hendicott retired from the Committee and each received our grateful thanks and a bouquet; Sue Amey was welcomed as a new member of the Committee, and made a short speech stressing how important it is for people to volunteer to be involved. Sue will be running a stall at the Garden Party and needs donations of small prizes. Margaret Barrow is now the contact point for Hostesses and Sue Bourne will organise the Theatre outings; Susie Appleford takes over correspondence and Sue Amey will arrange outings.

Members then indulged in coffee and delicious home-made cakes. This was followed by a Quiz about countries of the world. At the end of the meeting the spare cakes were sold. The ACWW competition, "An item with wings", was very well supported and Gill Dodd's RAF Brooch won.

The next meeting is on 14th April at the Radnor Hall and the new speaker will be Demi Ladwa on the topic, "Saris and Fashion". The ACWW competition is a decorative tin or box.

Barn Dance 2014

Maggie Metcalfe

The evening of 1st March saw, or even felt, the Radnor Hall rocking to the sound of 40 pairs of feet aged from under 7 to over 70, obeying instructions from Des Adley from Bishopstone, to (amongst other things) 'take your partners, swing 'em, walk 'em, turn 'em and move on to the next one'. And what is more, the owners of those feet paid happily for the experience, raising over £300 for local charity Alabaré in the process.

It was all great fun and much enjoyed, especially after a light supper of sausages in fresh rolls, followed by choc ices, which provided welcome refreshment for drooping energy levels.

Press Releases

Editor

As mentioned in the November 2013 edition of News and Notes, I regularly receive press releases from Wiltshire Council, Salisbury City Council, the Southern Wiltshire Area Board and, occasionally, others. I had a go at making them available on the N&N website, but was finding it somewhat time-consuming and difficult to keep them up to date.

I have adopted an alternative approach, which is to circulate any relevant releases to a distribution list which I started to compile by contacting all those on my main N&N contact list. Among a few other things, I use this latter list to let people know when the online version of N&N is available. If you'd like your email address to be added to either or both the lists, please either use the email address below to let me know, or visit the website, which has pages (Press Releases and Emailing list, see the left hand menu) which enable you to join a list.

Christian Aid

Adrian Taylor

Christian Aid Week this year is 11th - 17th May. Having organised the collection in our five villages for around twenty years, I would like to pass the job on to others, and to start the process of handing over this year.

Please call (01722 325862) or email me (Editor's email address - see below), if you feel you may be able to help, and I will explain what is involved.

Needless to say, Christian Aid is a very worthy cause, and the envelope collection in our villages raised over £1,000 in 2013.

Longford C of E Primary School

The children really enjoyed our 'book' week, especially 'The spaceship has landed'. The Friends of Longford School also arranged for the children to have bedtime stories read at school.

Key Stage 2 children have taken part in the Tag Rugby Festival and a cross-country event. All key stages have had 'Walk Safe' talks. During assembly times we have welcomed the 'Open the Book' team who have given assemblies on 'The Two Kings', 'Best Friends', 'Run for your Life', 'King and Dances'. Kingfishers class went to 'Out of this World, singing spectacular' at the City Hall, and Kestrels class went to see 'Tomten' at the Salisbury Arts Centre.

The term will end with the Easter Service in Britford Church and the Easter Fair run by Friends of Longford School.

We return to school for the Summer Term on Tuesday 22nd April.

Community Governor Vacancy

We have a vacancy for a Community Governor. If you would like to find out more about this position, please contact the Clerk to the Governors, Mrs K Roche, 01722 327292 – admin@longford.wilts.sc.uk. School website: www.longfordCofEprimary.co.uk
