Dear Friend

01722 330628

It will soon be Shrove Tuesday (20 Feb) and doubtless many, possibly too many (!), pancakes will be consumed in our homes that day! The next day, Ash Wednesday, will probably not be noted or observed so universally, but I do hope you will wish to join us for our Holy Communion for Ash Wednesday in Odstock Church at 7.30 pm.

Ash Wednesday of course marks that beginning of Lent, a season which is not always understood or approached in the best way. The word Lent comes from an Anglo-Saxon word meaning Spring or New Life and is therefore all about making a fresh start or looking at things in a new way. This year for our weekly evening meetings in Lent I have tried to find material that will, in its freshness and direct approach, appeal to a wide range of tastes. I have chosen the "ALPHA" Course which is finding popularity throughout the world and in all denominations and among those who do not belong to any church. If you have genuine questions as to how to relate the Christian faith to your daily life or to world events then please do come. Each evening will start with an introductory talk on tape and then time for discussion.

The first session is on Wednesday 28 February at 7.30 pm in the Barker Room.

Yours

Robert Hollingshurst

Miss Denys Clarke, President, welcomed members and reported on the success of the Christmas meeting at Britford Memorial Hall. Names were taken for those wishing to be included for a Bursary for a Denman College Course during 1996. The Scrabble Season has started and we wish our team well.

Mrs Gill Coveney gave a talk, illustrated with slides on the Wilton Carpet Factory, past and present - where she has worked as a hand weaver. In 1665 a Royal Charter was granted. The 8th Earl of Pembroke saw carpets in France and smuggled them out in barrels on a ship to England. The carpet designs are no longer painted by hand, but computers are used. Wilton and Axminsters are both made at Wilton. Members of the public are welcomed in the Weavers Shop, the Clothing Shop, the museum and the coffee shop.

The "Flower of the Month" was an Iris Stylosa, won by Miss Betty Marks. (For new members, this competition is open to all. Flowers must be picked from your garden and one stem only.)

On 12 February, Mr David Barke will talk on "Working on the Fringe of the Cathedral". Angela Moules

A Children's Hospice in Wessex?

Such a hospice does not exist in the whole of southern England, though there are six in the northern counties.

The Wessex Children's Hospice Fund is raising money to build one, and has already been given a site at Sutton Scotney, and building starts early this year. £5 million needs to be raised, of which over £2 million is already in the kitty.

Village schools are taking part in the fund raising and Odstock is among them. Each child was given a tube of Smarties and in return undertook to fill the tube with 5p pieces. The response was splendid and to date £221 has been raised.

On behalf of the Fund I would like to thank very warmly the children, their parents and the teachers for their help and co-operation, and Mr Haine of Coombe Bissett village shop who so kindly gave us the Smarties at cost price.
