Remembering special people...

On his recent visit to our country, Pope Benedict urged young people to resist the lure of celebrity or materialism, to find true happiness in more lasting things. Contentment is a rare quality and one I admire. Some of my favourite people are not rich in worldly terms, but live gratefully and happily. They enjoy life, take part in their local communities, give generously and make friends easily. Such people leave their mark on others.

I well remember a lovely man, now long dead, a member of my church in Bristol. He was totally content. He never married but had many friends. He regularly invited people to tea – former colleagues and their families, people from church, neighbours. He wrote lots of letters and maintained friendships around the world. Yet life had not been easy for him – he had suffered much during the second world war – not that he spoke about it, but we knew it had left its mark. He was humble and grateful. “God is very good” he would say, “He’s given me so much.”

I imagine we all have special people who have died, and whom we remember with love and gratitude. It is good to thank God for them. Each year the Church celebrates All Souls and All Saints when we remember those who have died, as well as focus on the wider communion of saints – “friends on earth and friends above” as one hymn puts it. Those we grieve may not be famous in the world’s eyes, but they are precious to us, and have left their mark on our lives. So we remember them and how at their funeral service we commended them to God. And we pray that God will comfort us, and give us grateful, contented hearts.

Letter from the Editor

Minerva Concert and the Nunton Church Appeal

In last month's News and Notes, I included details of the Minerva String Quartet's concert on 9th October. In a moment of absent-mindedness, I showed the venue as the Radnor Hall.

In fact, this not-to-be-missed concert will be in St Andrew's, Nunton and full details can be found on page 3. As well as hearing splendid music, those coming will be able to see some of the changes already made at St Andrew's, following the recent appeal.

There is still some work to be done at the church. If you have been meaning to contribute to the appeal and not quite got round to it, or maybe not thought about it yet, it's not too late! Please contact me (01722 325862) or pick up a leaflet from the church, if you would like to join many generous neighbours by making a contribution.

Carol Stratton

The September meeting was held on Monday 13th. The President, Elizabeth Cutter, welcomed everyone after the summer break and also the new members. Elizabeth then thanked the hostess, also Sue Amey for the beautiful and sunny flower arrangement she had done for the President's table.

The business part of the meeting followed, with reports from Secretary, Jean Van Hagen and Treasurer, Sheila May.

Forthcoming events were announced which were;

- 20th September - Book Club, Any Charles Dickens novel at Ull Whitty's.
- 27th September - Walking Group to meet at "The Royal Oak" North Gorley.
- 15th November - Theatre Group "The Picture" meeting at 7.30pm.
- 9th November - "Share a Skill" meeting 10am at the Radnor Hall.

Margaret Barrow told members that unfortunately there would be no league Skittles for the foreseeable future but she would be organising some friendly matches later in the autumn and asked if there was anyone else who would like to come to the skittle evenings, which can be great fun.

This part of the meeting was followed by the speaker for the morning, Ann Orr, who is a Legal Consultant. Her talk was "Are you Legally Prepared". This could have been a heavy and depressing subject but Ann made it interesting informative and, at times, amusing. The talk gave everyone food for thought about putting their affairs in order.

Thanks were given by Debby Underhill and the meeting ended with a delicious Ploughman's Lunch. The flower of the month competition was won by Mary Goward with her Magnolia Grandiflora. The next meeting will be on 11th October. The talk will be "The Ebble Valley" by Mr Rex Sawyer.

Odstock Parish Council

In previous years, skips have been provided for the removal of parishioners' unwanted items. This was always a very popular service but there were occasions when more refuse was deposited near to, rather than in, the skips. Odstock Parish Council has resolved to discontinue the skip service. Instead, Wiltshire Council will be making available one of their regular refuse collection vehicles (RCV) on Saturday, 2nd October, 7:15-11:30am. For this to be successful, every parishioner will need to be aware of this service in order that they can prepare to make use of the service. Odstock PC is grateful that the landlords of the Yew Tree in Odstock and the Radnor Arms in Nunton have given their permission for the RCV to use their respective car parks as a collection point. The RCV will be available in the Yew Tree car park from 7:15 to 9:15am and in the Radnor Arms car park from 9:30 to 11:30am. Please do not bring unacceptable items to the collection points. Garden waste will NOT be accepted. If in doubt, contact Wiltshire Council prior to 2nd October. Tel: 01722-434319/434320. Full details of what can and cannot be disposed of are listed on the notices which can be downloaded from www.odstock.info and viewed on the village notice boards during September. The next scheduled meeting of Odstock PC is on 8 December. An Agenda will be published on the village notice boards and at www.odstock.info at least 3 days before the meeting. Contact the Parish Clerk about all parish matters, including highways issues, on Tel: 01794-341405 or eMail: OPC@ODSTOCK.INFO

Trussell Trust

Rich Parsons, 01722 338603.

We are getting ready for The Trussell Trust's annual Christmas Box Appeal. Every year, we take thousands of donated presents to Bulgaria's poorest and most vulnerable people. We distribute boxes to orphanages, Roma communities, refugee centres, women's refuges and poor rural schools. The difference these gifts make is amazing. As well as bringing joy to people who would not otherwise have a Christmas gift, we've also been able to offer further help to many families and individuals simply because we gave them a shoebox. This year, we need your help more than ever. We have the opportunity to give out more boxes to more people in poverty, but this will only be possible with your help.

Leaflets giving details of how to fill and present your shoe box will be available in all four churches in the News and Notes area, or available from Debby Underhill (01722 329769). Boxes may then be taken direct to the Trussell Trust or be left at Nunton Church by 19th November.

If you would like your school, church or business to get involved please get in touch and we'll send you support material. If you would like to volunteer to help us sort and pack the boxes then please get in touch with me.

Cleaner Required - Odstock

1 to 2 hours per week, paying £10 per hour. Please apply to David Coleman at Simplytrak, Parsonage Barn, Odstock. Tel: 01722 335111.

Would you like to learn to play Bridge?

I have been playing bridge for over 70 years and would like to pass on my skills! I need 2 or 3 people to make up a four to learn to play the game.

If you are interested, please give me a ring on 01722 336960.

Voting Registration

Voters across the county are now receiving their annual voter registration forms which could be the difference between having their say and losing their voice next year.

Election staff at Wiltshire Council will be sending out forms to households across Wiltshire over the coming weeks to ensure people are on the electoral register that will be the basis for the planned referendum on voting reform on 5th May, 2011.

By following the instructions on the form, people can ensure they are able to have a say next year.

John Watling, head of electoral services, said:
"Registering to vote is simple, quick and easy. If people's details haven't changed they can simply reply by phone or online via the internet. The annual canvass form needs to be updated with the details of everyone in each household who is eligible to vote. The form then needs to be returned to us as soon as possible.

This year's general election was very high profile and we were very pleased with the increase in registration shortly before polling day. However, some people may not realise that they have to register every year. By completing the annual canvass form that comes through their door, they can be assured that their vote will be secured for next year."

Adrian Green, Electoral Commission regional manager, said: "Next year will be an important one for voters in Wiltshire, but people can't take part if they're not on the electoral register.

"If anyone knows they are going to be unable to attend a polling station on May 5 they can apply now for a postal or proxy vote. Details about alternative ways to vote can be found at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk."

For more information, people can contact the Wiltshire Council election team on 0300 456 0112 or visit www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

Annual General Meeting

Diocesan Music in Worship Day

On Saturday 13th November 2010 the Diocesan Music in Worship Day will take place at the Dorford Centre, Dorford Baptist Church, Bridport Road, Dorchester, Dorset. The day will start with Opening Worship and will be followed by a keynote address from David Ogden. David is well known as a conductor and composer and is much in demand as a conductor and director of choral and church music workshops, courses and festivals in the UK and abroad. His unique mix of highly skilled music-making, inspirational teaching and leadership and sense of humour makes him an extremely popular choice for workshops of all kinds. He is Director of Music at Westbury-on-Trym parish church in Bristol and is also a Special Advisor for the Royal School of Church Music.

Following this there will be an opportunity to attend a workshop in the morning and afternoon. The workshop leaders will include: Trevor Jarvis, who will specialise in Choral direction and plainchant; Paul Taylor, the Archdeacon of Sherborne, who will offer workshops on Music for Evensong and in the Eucharist; Robert Fielding who will offer organist workshops for beginners and non-beginners. Chris Moorsom and Steve Ball will lead workshops for Worship Groups, Glyn Bush and Ralph Cree provide sessions on rhythm and drumming and David Bruce-Payne will offer a chance to have a go at Music Composition. The day finishes with all the groups coming together to make a joyful noise in the plenary worship session. Between them the workshops cover a wide range, from traditional to modern, formal to informal, vocal, instrumental and mixed groups. A wide range of interests are catered for.

Bookings are already coming in, and several of the courses are proving to be very popular, so if you are interested please get your booking forms as quickly as possible from Jill Minchin at 'Music in Worship', 8 Alexandra Road, Dorchester, Dorset DT1 2LZ, email: salmusic@hotmail.co.uk or telephone (01305 263757).

Rockbourne Fair

Salisbury Racecourse, 20th to 22nd October

Shopping, dining, socialising and fundraising will be on the menu when the Rockbourne Fair returns to Salisbury Racecourse on 20th, 21st and 22nd October. The annual Christmas shopping fair, which is expected to attract thousands of people from Wiltshire, Hampshire, Dorset and beyond, is now in its 22nd year and firmly established as one of the region's 'must-attend' events.

This year there will be around 90 stands, nearly 40 of which will be new to the Fair, with stall holders from across the UK selling exclusive and original goods that make perfect Christmas presents spectacularly showcased across three gift halls. In the Food Hall, shoppers can taste and take home a wide selection of gourmet food and drink from speciality cheeses, smoked salmon and fine teas to the ever popular plum pudding!

When the retail therapy all gets a bit much, shoppers can relax in the Racecourse's excellent restaurant. The Fair will remain open until 7.30pm on the Thursday evening for late night shopping and, as ever, there will be plenty of free parking.

All proceeds from the Rockbourne Fair are donated to the Salisbury District Hospital Stars Appeal

- a local charity which helps make life better for local people undergoing hospital treatment by funding additional equipment and facilities, above and beyond those provided by the NHS, at Salisbury District Hospital. Money raised at this year's fair will help support a number of projects across the Hospital, including the provision of family accommodation for the parents and siblings of babies born premature or critically ill and Face the Future, a support group which offers free skin care and make-up sessions to local women undergoing treatment for cancer.

Jane Corani, who is a member of the voluntary organising committee, said "Come and get all your Christmas shopping under one roof. We have 90 stalls providing original, high quality and well priced presents, including gifts for children, beautiful jewellery, luxurious clothes and shoes, and a speciality food and drink hall packed with delicious tempting treats!"

Chalke Valley Flower Club

Liz Long, 01722 780448

Floral art can be used to really stretch the imagination so, when Karen Cannon comes to Broadchalke Village Hall on 27th October, she has labelled her show "Within Boundaries". We are sure it will be a demonstration in the best possible taste and if you want to see something different then this could be your night out. The evening starts at 7.30pm with £5 tickets for guests at the door. There will also be a photo competition for members hoping to win The Hartgill Cup with some imaginative work there too. If the events look inviting then you will be most welcome to join us for a sociable evening, a coffee and a friendly group of pleasure seekers having fun.

Healing and Wholeness

A short, Celtic service of Healing and Wholeness is held every Third Thursday, in Bowerchalke Church, from 11 - 11.30. It is a time of peace, music, and the hospitality of prayer. For more information, or if you need a lift, or help in easier access to the Church, please ring Lavender Buckland 01722 780488
