Team GB

I can't pretend I was particularly keen on the name Team GB for our group of Olympic competitors, but I very much liked what they achieved at the Games. It's clear that the Good Luck wish from News and Notes last month was effective!

There were many wonderful things to celebrate, and those who followed the events will have their own special moments. I think my favourite was the Elimination Race in the Ladies Cycling Omnium Event. Our Gold Medal winner, Laura Trott, displayed a great deal of skill and courage in this splendid spectacle, which is like a lightening fast version of one of those TV shows where one competitor drops out at the end of each episode. All a rider needs to win the Elimination Race is to avoid being last over the line on every other lap, in a stark demonstration of survival of the fittest.

I've just watched the race again thanks to the wonders of YouTube. Unfortunately, my broadband's performance can't quite keep up with the speed of the riders, and this time they had a few rests along the way!

Now we have the Paralympics to look forward to, and it seems that level of attendance at events will be unprecedented. Once again we wish our competitors good fortune. Let's hope N&N's back page encouragement is as effective as last time.

The Queen must be very pleased with her team, and her country, doing so well in her Diamond Jubilee year. 2012 is turning out to be the very special year that we hoped it would be.

Time to retire...

Alison Williams

Dear Friends,

Many of you will have already heard of my intention to retire at the end of November. The years have flown, and they have been very happy! But I know that it is sensible for me not to continue full time work after my 65th birthday, given my family history of early heart attacks.

I plan to take a few months off as I settle into my new home and community in Highworth, north Wiltshire, and look forward to having more time to do my garden, join a choir, travel and visit friends around the country. Then I shall look for some part time pastoral ministry, and a small role in my local church. My final service in the valley will be 18th November in Nunton. In the meantime, it's business as usual, and one last busy autumn in the valley.

Britford Parish Clerk: Vacancy

Britford Parish Council invites applications for the post of Parish Clerk. Whilst the post is voluntary, out-of-pocket expenses will be covered. This is an interesting and varied role serving a friendly and supportive Parish Council.

The Parish Council holds six meetings each year on the first Wednesday of alternate months. The Parish Clerk will be responsible for preparing the agendas, writing the minutes dealing with the Parish Council's accounts, correspondence and all other administration. Previous experience as a Parish Clerk would be helpful but not essential, however good literacy, accounting and computer skills will be required for this post.

For further information, or to apply, please contact Malcolm Hitchings on: 01722 322747 or email: malcolmhitchings@yahoo.co.uk.

Britford Road Closure

Malcolm Hitchings

To enable Wiltshire Council to carry out repairs and kerbing works at the South Bridge (locally known as Lock Bridge) following damage caused by a vehicle hitting it earlier in the year, the road will be closed between 8.00am and 6.00pm for five days from Monday 24th September 2012.
