How marvellous!

Those that know me well will be aware that I was not a model pupil at school. It's not so much that I was particularly naughty, although school rules and I were sometimes strangers, but more that my engagement with the learning process, and consequently my exam success, was minimal. Not too much of the education on offer rubbed off on me, although, to be fair, I can spell quite a lot of words and add up a bit. I also take consolation in the fact that I was a wonderful example to my daughters who realised that, unless they worked hard at school, they might end up like me.

It seems to me that education these days is subject to more rules and regulations than it was when I was in the system. That might not be a bad thing, although I have been perplexed recently by the Department of Education's ruling that primary school pupils will only get credit for using exclamation marks in sentences beginning with 'what' or 'how'. Having said that, I do appreciate that exclamation marks are somewhat overused today!

I think it would be difficult to write about the events of Easter that we've been remembering in our church services in recent weeks without using lots of exclamation marks, no matter how the sentences begin. What an amazing story! How marvellous it is that I have ready access to forgiveness when I go astray!

Anna Treseder

Heather Marrison, President, welcomed members to the Annual General Meeting at the Radnor Hall on 14th March. She thanked Peggy Knight for the beautiful spring flower arrangement. Reports on the monthly interest groups - Theatre, Scrabble, Skittles, Reading, Walking, Gardeners and Craft - followed, each group continuing to have enthusiastic supporters. ONB WI has 71 members in 2016.

Details of forthcoming national, local and county outings, talks and entertainments were read out by Susie Appleford. Sue Amey informed us that the summer outing will be to Hinton Ampner and St Cross in Winchester. A new Public Affairs e-mail Digest is available. Request it on publicaffairs@NFWI.org.uk

AGM business entailed the Treasurer's Report ably delivered by Treasurer Linda Cox, the Committee Report by Susie Appleford, including special thanks to Heather Marrison for her efficient leadership during the year, and Heather's President's Address which reviewed an excellent year with many enjoyable activities. Heather thanked her Committee, mentioning the main tasks they had undertaken with special mentions to Elizabeth Cutter, Sue Amey, and Margaret and John Barrow, and thanked all the members for their support. Debby Underhill replied on behalf of the members. All three reports were adopted.

The meeting then agreed the Committee members for the coming year and proceeded to vote for the President; Lesley Meader and Doreen Smith acted as scrutineers. Unsurprisingly Heather was re-elected in a landslide victory! Susie Appleford and Carol Stratton retired from the Committee while Hatty Hillier and Liz Edwards were welcomed onto it.

Members then indulged in coffee and delicious home-made cakes. The money raised will be donated to Denman. This was followed by Sally Hadley telling us about the day in June 2015 when she and Elizabeth Cutter went to the WI Centenary Garden Party at Buckingham Palace. A memorable and enjoyable experience.

The ACWW competition, "A Pin Cushion", was won by Jillie Bulpitt. Morning Star continues to be our charity for this year.

The next meeting is on 11th April at the Radnor Hall. The talk will be "I Walked Alone from Land's End to John O'Groats" by Judith Talis. The ACWW competition is a paper weight.

Nicolette Beardsmore, Parent Governor

Celebrating World Book Day with Shakespeare 3rd March 2016

Longford School stepped back over 400 years in time to celebrate the life and works of one of our most celebrated British playwrights during the first week of March.

All the children have been reading, performing and enjoying the stories of Hamlet, A Midsummer Night's Dream and The Tempest and according to Toni-Marie from Kingfishers, the week has been 'fabulous, I have really enjoyed practising our play and have learnt lots of facts like Shakespeare retired in 1613 – the same year as The Globe theatre burnt down'.

Children made pomanders to keep away the stench of Tudor living, wrote their Shakespearian name using a quill and ink, made Tudor purses, wrote spells for Puck and, to coincide with World Book day, the children came to school dressed as characters from Shakespeare plays - we even had a few examples of the famous Bard himself.

The culmination of the exciting week came on Friday with an entertaining production by the Kingfisher's Class of 'The Life and Times of William Shakespeare'.

We are hoping that in 400 years' time, primary school children across the land will be celebrating the life and works of one of our budding writers from Longford!

To add to the fun, FOLS held their annual Pyjama Party where children came to school in their PJs or onesie with their favourite cuddly toy and listened to stories read by parents, pausing midway through for a cup of hot chocolate and a biscuit or two before going home for bed.

Starting School in September 2016?

Parents who are still seeking a Primary School place for September 2016 are welcome to visit the school. Please telephone the office to make an appointment on 01722 327292.
