Dear Friend

01722 330628

Once again it is Remembrance month with its familiar services and events throughout our land. It has of course been a Remembrance year with the fiftieth anniversary of so many decisive moments in both Europe and the Far East. We shall continue to recall the tremendous cost in human terms of those war years and of the subsequent smaller conflicts, in our village services on 12th which will follow our usual pattern for Remembrance Sunday. These services will be at Charlton and Nunton.

Events in Bosnia constantly remind us that war in Europe is still, for thousands of people, a present reality. The heart of man knows no limits in its ability to destroy and plunder. Equally there are no limits to which it can aspire to good and noble activity. Very often it is against the appalling backdrop of evil that such goodness is inspired and achieved. Those who shine as lights wherever darkness is to be found should find a special place in our hearts and prayers. They point us to a practical way of expressing our thanks for those who won for us our freedom. We too are called to shine, and for us to do so would be counted as thanks enough by those who paid the ultimate price. May their flame be passed on to us!

Finally, the light of Christ is the source and sustainer of all that shines in the darkness. His light is that which illumines our minds and scatters the darkness of our sinful state. May he lighten your life and mine that, in his name, we may bring light to others!

Yours

Robert Hollingshurst

WI

On 9 October Mrs Margo Brennan spoke on "The Life of a Village Schoolmistress in the late 1940s". Mrs Brennan then a nervous 19 year old, chose to teach 9 - 11 year olds, but was given her first job with a class of 25 4 - 8 year olds, in the little village of Poynings, near Brighton. Her talk was hilarious, a brilliant way of spending a Monday morning, greatly enjoyed by all.

The Downland Group Winter meeting will be at 2 pm on 30 October in the Downton Memorial Hall. For the Archbold Cup competition, two paintings and two photographs depicting Water were chosen from those submitted; these were by Mesdames Barrow, Pearce and Moules. The "flower of the month" was a Super Star rose from Mrs Ruddle.

On 13 November, Mrs V Bath will talk about "Nursing in an African Bush". Angela Moules

Odstock Church Appeal Fund

This now stands at £22,500. There will be a "Silent Auction" and Grand Draw at 7 pm on Saturday 9 December. First bids start 7.30 pm and final bids 9 pm. Please come and join in the fun. Admission £1.00 to include seasonal refreshments. Tickets from Madeline Baker (01722 329374), Windsor, Odstock, or Angela Moules (01722 329785). If you have anything to spare (maybe hidden in the attic?) we would be very grateful for gifts of any kind for the auction or the raffle (Madeline, Angela and committee members). Collection can be arranged.

We have also been allotted a "Table Top" at the Downton Memorial Hall on 2 December morning - again we would be grateful for any gifts, toys, jam, plants, anything. We hope to start on the car park and work on the church tower in the Spring. With your help we will get there. Angela Moules

Charlton Village Appraisal

In April this year, every household in Charlton was sent a Village Appraisal Questionnaire. 85% of households completed and returned the form, and the results have now been compiled into one report. The main objective of the questionnaire was to see if there was enough support to proceed with up-grading the church as a meeting place and providing the necessary improved facilities. 87% of people answering the questionnaire were happy to see the nave of the church used as village hall. There will be a meeting on Monday 13 November at 7.30 pm at Charlton Church to discuss the report, the availability of grants and the way forward.

Ofsted Inspection Report

Odstock School was inspected as part of a national programme of school inspections between 3 and 5 July 1995. It is a small primary school for four to eleven year olds close to the city of Salisbury. It attracts children from a wide area. There is a high turnover of children. The average class size is seventeen.

The Main Findings:

Children are well behaved and good relationships have been established between pupils and teachers. The school provides a satisfactory education for most children. Children with Special Educational Needs are well supported. The school provides adequate money for a school of its size.

- There are exceptionally high standards of behaviour and positive attitudes towards learning (key issues point 1).
- Children are generally keen, eager to learn and are developing increasingly refined learning skills (report summary).
- Children with Special Educational Needs are well supported (main findings).
- Most children achieve standards which meet national expectations (main findings).
- Standards are satisfactory in all of the National Curriculum subjects except Science (main findings).
- The staff work together as a team (main findings).

The Headteacher, Paul Niblett, comments:

This is a very thorough report which emphasises the strengths as well as the weaknesses of the school. Already, staff and governors have begun to make the changes to the management and curriculum necessary for the introduction of the revised National Curriculum for September. The criticisms in the report are very similar to those which all schools both nationally and locally have received. The Inspectors give a pointer about the future development in terms of planning, monitoring and evaluating the curriculum, teaching and classrooms organisation and advise a concerted approach to good working relationships.

The Chair of Governors comments:

We welcome this report which highlights the exceptionally high standards of behaviour and generally satisfactory level of educational attainment of the children.

Charlton Theatre Club

Thank you to all of you who supported the first event of the Charlton Theatre Club when 24 members and guests went to see "An Ideal Husband" at the Salisbury Playhouse on 12 October. Judging by the responses I have received all had a thoroughly enjoyable evening and were superbly entertained in the theatre's magnificent new auditorium.

Following the success of "An Ideal Husband" a number of members met on 18 October to plan the club's next events. Based on member's preferences I have booked the following theatre trips:

	Venue	Date	Time	Discount Price
The Nutcracker	Mayflower	2 December	7.30 pm	£16.00
Cinderella	Playhouse	12 January	7.15 pm	£6.00
Norman Conquests	Playhouse	To be decided

It was agreed to arrange transport to the Mayflower Theatre in Southampton at an estimated price of £5.00 per person return.

"The Nutcracker" is a very popular, well known ballet performed on this occasion by the English National Ballet Company. Much of the music will sound very familiar (so I am told) to those of us who do not frequent the ballet and the production should be spectacular. Now is your chance to see this festive show and sample something different.

Club members will be sent full details and booking forms for the above events. If anyone else wishes to join the club and take advantage of the discounted ticket prices, please contact me on 01725 512262 for a booking form and membership form. Our reservation for "The Nutcracker" needs to be confirmed very shortly so I must ask you to contact me by 6 November if you are interested in that trip. Joanna Matthews
