Lent

In the church's year, we are coming into the season of Lent. It's unusually late this year, because in the church's calendar Lent is dictated by the date of Easter, which can itself vary considerably. In honour of Jesus' fast in the wilderness, Lent is forty days long. The link with Easter is not an obvious one... the fast in the wilderness followed on immediately from Jesus' baptism and marks the very beginning of his ministry, whilst the events of Holy Week and Easter mark the end of it, traditionally three years later (the three years is based on the fact that three separate Passover Festivals are mentioned in the Gospels).

And yet whilst there is no historical link between Jesus' fast and his death and resurrection, somehow the pattern of the deprivation of Lent culminating in the glory of Easter and its celebration of new life works well. In the early church, adult baptisms were usually held on Easter Day... the idea was that the candidates were dying to their old life and being born again into a new one, just as at Easter Jesus rose again from the dead. Lent was therefore the time of preparation for that baptism, a time of putting right those things that were wrong in the old life, and getting rid of anything that might stand in the way of following God.

Lent still has something of that sense. It is a time to reassess our priorities, to get rid of anything that stands in the way of our becoming the people we are called to be, and to strengthen within ourselves an inner discipline about following our priorities. Maybe that is something that even those who do not actively follow God can find of value in their lives.

The February meeting was very well attended with the addition of two visitors and one new member.

Elizabeth Cutter, President, welcomed members and thanked Judy Barke for her beautiful flower arrangement.

Claire Hendicott took bookings for the Betty Blue Eyes on 28th April. Sue Bourne reported that two Scrabble matches have been fixed.

The next meeting of the walking group will be at Langley Wood on the 24th February. Ulla Whitty has a meeting of the book club on 17th February.

Margaret Barrow reported that the skittles team have fixed two matches and hopes to have two open meetings to attract new players.

The talk on bees at the gardening group meeting was excellent and the speaker Neil Lovesey, of Picket Nursery, will be asked to come again.

The fifth Monday meeting on 31st March will be on patchwork.

A charity Sale of Promises was set up, with a list of potential promises being circulated for members to enter.

Future plans for a Craft Club were discussed by those interested at the end of the meeting.

Linda Cox gave the Treasurer's report.

Sharon Clark's charming small flower arrangement won the competition in aid of ACWW.

Nicky Angel gave a most interesting talk on Salisbury City Almshouses and Welfare Charities. City almshouses can be traced back to the founding of Trinity Hospital in the 1370's. Later benefactors donated rents from property in exchange for prayers, and the hospital survived many vicissitudes caring for the poor and unfortunate. The beautiful chapel in Trinity Street is open to the public. Today the charity has 11 residential almshouses providing accommodation for the elderly with limited means. In two, extra care is provided so residents can stay as long as possible. Those with five years' residence in the Salisbury area at any time are eligible to apply for a flat. The Salisbury Charities also run a housing charity for young families and provides other welfare grants.

The next meeting is the AGM on 10th March.

Radnor Hall Caretaker

Harry Joynt, Chairman Radnor Hall Committee

It is with much regret that I have to announce that Jenny Compton is giving up her role as the Caretaker/Manager at The Radnor Hall at the end of this month. The Compton family will be moving out of the Hall cottage over the week end March 29th to 30th. Until then Jenny will continue to handle all inquiries about the use of the Hall, while we start the search for a successor.

Over the last five years Jenny, supported by Comp, has done a fine job for us at the Hall with energy, dedication, imagination and good humour. The Hall is a much busier place than when they arrived.

On behalf of one and all I should like to thank them heartily for all they have done for us, and wish them the very best for the future. There will be many sorry to see them go.

Odstock, Nunton and Bodenham Grand Fête - 12th July

Please make sure you have 12th July in your diary for this year's Grand Fête at Nunton. Plans are well under way, and we're told it's going to be a lovely day, whatever the weather!

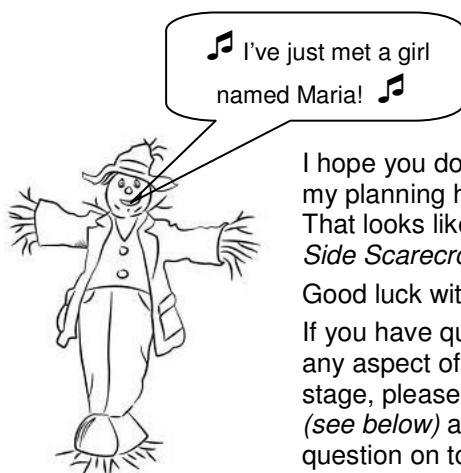

There'll be a Raft Race after the Fête, and we're just hoping that there'll be enough water in the Ebbles this year.

The evening before the Fête we shall be dancing in the marquee, so please keep that free too.

By popular request, we're inviting everyone to make a scarecrow again this year. They will be displayed either at your gate or, if you like, somewhere more prominent for those who live off the beaten track.

There'll be more details as the time for their display gets nearer, but so that you can start to think about your scarecrow now, please note that the theme this time is "Musicals". Just in case anyone is thinking that there's not enough scope, one of the committee members came up with this list of suggestions within seconds of the theme being agreed, and there's lots more:

*Singing in the Rain - Mary Poppins - Chicago
Lion King - West Side Story - Matilda - Cabaret
Oliver - Guys and Dolls - Billy Elliot - Mamma Mia
We Will Rock You - Les Misérables - Oklahoma
Phantom of the Opera - Wicked - The Sound of Music
Grease - Bugsy Malone - Moulin Rouge
Chitty Chitty Bang Bang - Fame - My Fair Lady*

I hope you don't mind if I start my planning here and now. That looks like a real West Side Scarecrow to me.

Good luck with yours!

If you have questions about any aspect of the Fête at this stage, please email the Editor (see below) and he'll pass the question on to the Fête Committee.

Lent Course 2014 in The Orchard Community Room

This year we have taken up the York Course for study and discussion during Lent. It is entitled "Build on the Rock, Faith, doubt – and Jesus". This is a ecumenical course in 5 sessions and there are 5 notable speakers sharing their thoughts and experience. We shall be meeting at 7.30pm in the Community Room at The Orchard, Nunton, starting on Tuesday 11th March. Please join us, everyone is welcome.

If you have any questions please phone Marian Hearne 01722 335685.

The Radnor Hall, Bodenham Caretaker

The part time position of Caretaker at the Radnor Hall is becoming vacant as from 1st April 2014.

Open Invitation to sing

The 'Local Vocals' singing group is holding a Song Sharing evening on Monday 31st March, at the Radnor Hall, Bodenham, starting at 7.30 pm, with the theme of "Songs of Longing, Celebration and Letting Go".

It will be an informal run-through of a selection of the music we have been enjoying lately: some African harmonies, Gospel songs, Scottish melodies, etc.

Admission free - refreshments to follow - please put the date in your diary and come along.

The 'Local Vocals' meet on the first Monday of each month at the Radnor Hall, and the third Monday at Britford Hall. Everyone is welcome and you don't have to read music - just have a desire to sing!

Taizé Service
